

Tejas Maniar

ENTERPRISE, TALENT

Tejas Maniar serves as Operating Partner and also leads Mayfield's talent function.

He is a proven operating executive. At Mayfield, he partners closely with companies on their strategies for leadership, hiring, and human capital. He serves as a board observer on SmartRecruiters, Skilljar and Mammoth Biosciences. Prior to Mayfield, he worked at Google where he led teams in strategy and analytics, as well as a special projects team for the CEO. He spent his early career in executive search, management consulting, and as part of the founding team of an IT consulting startup that was acquired.

Tejas holds an MBA in Finance and Strategy from Case Western Reserve's Weatherhead School of Management, and a BS in Management Science from the University of California, San Diego.
